2 District Traffic Fatalities Boost October Total To Six

East Palestine Mother Struck Down By Auto

Columbiana Man Succumbs To Injuries Received Thursday

The October traffic fatality toll in the Salem State Highway Patrol district increased to six during the past 24 hours with the deaths of an East Palestine woman struck down by a car as she was walking along a highway last night, and a Columbiana man who had been injured Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Chick, 36, of East Palestine was pronounced dead on arrival by a physician after she was hit by an auto operated by Anthony Cappolina, 41, of New Castle on Route 170, one and one-half miles south of East Palestine, at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

Struck From Behind

Patrolmen reported the victim was walking north with the traffic and was struck from behind. She died of a fractured skull.

The driver was not held. Patrolmen said the woman's dark clothing and the rain which was falling at the time made her difficult to see.

William A. Drexler, 38, of 20 S. Main St., Columbiana, succumbed at 4:30 a. m. today in Salem City Hospital of injuries sustained in a two-car crash on Route 164, three miles north of Lisbon, at 7:40 p. m. Thursday.

He had sustained severe lacerations of the face and a fractured jaw.

Two other people hurt in the crash, Francis M. Byers, 39, of Youngstown, driver of the other auto, and his wife, Mrs. Lorene Byers, 37, are still in City Hospital.

Seven Others Injured

Seven other people were injured in road mishaps yesterday.

Cars driven by Nicholas Orach, 24, of Hackettsville, N. J., and Earl Evans, 56, of West Bridge-water, Pa., sideswiped at 9:40 p.m. on Route 14, two miles east of Salem, near the Millville bridge.

Injured and in fair condition at City Hospital are Orach, possible fractured ribs; Evans, fractured leg and contusions of the chest, and his wife, Mildred, 56, contusions of the chest and abrasions of the right knee and left lower leg.

In fairly good condition are Jane O'Brian, 20, of Milwaukee, a passenger in Orach's car, abrasions of the left leg, and Myrna Fleming, 24, of West Bridge-water, a passenger in the other vehicle, possible fractured nose and contusions of the right knee.

Larry Davis, 2, was hurt when he fell out of a car driven by Alta Davis, 28, of Lisbon on Route 45 two miles south of Salem, at 4:40 p.m.

The child sustained body bruises and a possible concussion and was treated at City Hospital.

Cars driven by David Baum, 36, of Petersburg and Joseph Helsel, 60, of New York City collided.

British Dock Strike To End After 27 Days

LONDON (AP)—British dockers voted today to end their 27-day strike and return to work Monday.

The walkout of 43,000 dockers crippled Britain's major ports and struck a heavy blow to her foreign trade, the lifeblood of this island nation.

The back to work vote was taken at a nationwide series of mass meetings called by the strike leaders.

The men agreed to go back on condition that the question of compulsory overtime be submitted to men who refuse to work overtime until the issue is finally settled will not be disciplined.

The walkout started in the Port of London to support demands that overtime be on a voluntary rather than compulsory basis. Management maintains that the dependence of ship arrivals and departures on the tides makes compulsory overtime a necessity.

VICTIM—Karen Mauk (above), six, of Conemaugh Borough near Johnstown, Pa., nude, battered, and dead, was found in a cemetery about two miles from the town. State police are cooperating with borough police in the investigation. When she left home at 6:30 p.m. she was dressed in a trick-or-treat Halloween costume.

State Police Hunt Slayer Of Girl, 6

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 30 (AP)—Nine state policemen pressed relentlessly today to find the slayer of 6-year-old Karen Mauk, killed while she was making a "trick or treat" tour of the neighborhood in true Halloween fashion.

Sgt. J. A. Blair, a veteran of the force and the father of three children, heads the squad which has been ordered to stay on the case indefinitely.

Blair says there's only one real clue to the man who killed Karen and left her unclothed body in a cemetery at nearby Conemaugh Borough where it was found early yesterday by a volunteer fireman. He declared:

Tall, Thin Man Sought
"A tall thin man has been reported in the Conemaugh area the past two days. We've had different descriptions of him and he is reported to have approached several children. . . . Just before Karen was reported missing a 14-year-old girl told us the man touched her shoulder as she walked along the street but she broke away quickly and went home."

No Criminal Assault
The state police have been joined by other policemen in a widespread area in the search for Karen's slayer. Although an autopsy showed no evidence of a criminal assault, Police Chief George Fesko of Conemaugh said the slaying is "the brutal work of a sex maniac."

Coroner Joseph Govekar said an autopsy disclosed that Karen had died of suffocation. State police theorized that a coat or other object might have been held over her mouth.

Mrs. William Mauk was virtually near collapse as a fire siren called volunteers to add in the search. Her worst fears were realized five hours later when a fireman found Karen's body.

Police said a "trick or treat" bag of candy lay near her head. An apple was near one of her clenched fists.

543 Receive Free Chest X-Rays Friday
Chest X-rays were given 543 people Friday by the mobile X-ray unit of the Columbiana County Public Health League stationed in front of Salem High School.

Miss Lillian Schroeder, executive secretary of the league, today said that 40 people were X-rayed in the first half-hour this morning and the two-day total is expected to exceed 1,000.

THEFT IS REPORTED
Guy Coppock of 912 N. Lincoln Ave. reported to police that a rear view mirror was stolen from his car about 9 p.m. Friday while it was parked at 719 E. State St.

Office Contests, Plus Special Issues May Attract Voters Tuesday

About 35,000 Columbiana County voters are expected to go to the polls in Tuesday's general election to help name state, county and district officials and decide the fate of 33 special questions and issues—

Clerk's Slipup May Toss Out Sheppard Jury

Juror Discovered With Possible Criminal Record

CLEVELAND (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Edward Blythin began thumbing through his law books today to find out whether a clerk's slipup will wipe out nine days of painstaking questioning of jurors for the Sheppard murder trial.

The judge trying the case of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, the young osteopath accused of clubbing his pregnant wife to death, yesterday was shoved face to face with a legal tangle that could cause a mistrial.

For nine days, attorneys laboriously questioned a panel of 69 prospective jurors in an effort to pick 12 who could give Sheppard a fair trial. On Thursday a jury of seven men and five women was sworn in.

Today there was a chance it had all been wasted.

Report Criminal Record
A report that one of the 12 jurors had a criminal record brought up the possibility of a mistrial yesterday that would mean retrying the entire case, selection of a new jury and a delay that could stretch into weeks.

To Sheppard, it could mean a long postponement of the day he will finally be judged innocent or guilty of the crime that left his wife, Marilyn, bloody and lifeless on her bed last July 4.

The state claims he killed her after a clandestine love affair with auburn-haired Susan Hayes, 24-year-old former technician in the hospital where he practiced. Sheppard maintains she was killed by a bushy-haired man who invaded their home on the shore of Lake Erie.

Yesterday's development never got on the official record of the court. The details were provided

VFW Official Raps Hays As 'Veteran'
Attorney Howard Cole of Lisbon former Ohio Veterans of Foreign Wars commander and now an executive officer of the national VFW yesterday assailed Congressman Wayne Hays for the use of the word "veteran" in the Democratic candidate's campaign material.

Cole declared in a telegram to Hays "that the term veteran is invariably used for those on active duty in wartime and that Hays' reserve status would not qualify him as a veteran of World War II."

Cole asked that Hays "correct the impression, as did Rep. Stringfellow, that you served on active duty."

Meanwhile, James Nocera of the Steubenville Disabled American Veterans pointed out today that Hays was one of the earliest army reserve members and had volunteered for active duty in 1941.

principally tax levies and bond issues.

The expected turnout would be almost 11,000 under the 46,090 who voted in 1952—establishing a new county record—but there was keen interest then in the Eisenhower-Stevenson presidential race to boost the total. The last similar statewide election in 1950 brought out 35,547 votes in Columbiana County, including 6,191 in Salem.

Salem voters' interest in special issues will center on the $450,000 sewage bonds and the $250,000 Columbiana County jail bonds. Both need a 55 per cent affirmative vote for passage.

Only three offices are at stake in the county—one commissioner's post and the offices of state representative and auditor.

Along with the rest of Ohio, the county will center its interest on Rep. George H. Bender, Republican, and Sen. Thomas A. Burke, the Democratic interim appointee, in their hot battle for the unexpired term of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft.

Hunston Opposes Hays

Columbiana County has a "native son" in both the congressional and state senatorial contests. Both the county's candidates are Republicans and comparative newcomers to politics who are attempting to wrest away the Democratic control of downriver counties that has spelled victory repeatedly for the two incumbents.

City Solicitor Walter Jay Hunston of Salem is the GOP nominee, running against Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing in Belmont County, who is seeking a fourth term. It's a young man's contest, as Hunston is 35 and Rep. Hays is 42.

Rep. Hays was known as the "boy-congressman" when he won his term in 1948 at the age of 35. The county's candidate in the 20th-22nd District race for state senator is Donald W. Elliot, 42, of Rogers, nominated in May by the GOP to run against State Sen. Arthur Blake, 58, of Martins Ferry, who was nominated by the Democrats for a third term. Blake is a farmer. Attorney Elliott has practiced law in Lisbon and Rogers since 1935.

The congressional district is comprised of Columbiana, Jefferson, Belmont, Harrison and Carroll Counties. The state senatorial district is made of the same counties, except Carroll.

An East Liverpool Democrat and a Lisbon Republican seek to replace State Rep. Delmar T. O'Hara, Wellsville Republican who was defeated last May in a bid for a third term.

Clarence L. (Dutch) Wetzel of Lisbon took the nomination from O'Hara, while Democrats named as their candidate Donal I. Burcham of East Liverpool.

Wetzel, a 55-year-old salesman, served two terms in the legislature before he pulled out to run unsuccessfully for district congressman in 1952 against Hays. Burcham, 30, was an unsuccessful candidate for City Council in 1952. He is a millworker.

Greenisen Seeks 2nd Term

County Commissioner Galen Greenisen of Salem is seeking a second term. The GOP nominee, he is opposed by Albert R. Wood, Democrat of Madison Township, a farmer and former manager of the state-owned East Liverpool-Chester Bridge. Greenisen, a farm operator, is a member of the County Fair Board.

The other two county commissioners are hold-overs whose terms run through 1955. Both Republicans, they are W. A. Southan, former president of City Council, and Walter A. Hunston of East Palestine, father of the district congressional candidate.

VOTE—President Eisenhower, standing beside a glumlooking Cong. George Bender, urges Ohioans at Cleveland Hopkins Airport to vote for Republican candidates. Although his speech was meant principally to bolster Bender's chances in the senatorial race against Thomas Burke, the President failed to endorse Bender in the speech. As he left the airport, however, the President told reporters, "I want George Bender in Washington—but quick!"

Ex-Convict Slain In Gun Battle

Police Ambush Kills Slayer Of Policeman

CHICAGO (AP)—Police last night ambushed and killed Agostino (Gus) Amedeo, a cop-slaying ex-convict.

The elusive 26-year-old fugitive was shot down at a busy North Side intersection as he tried to escape a trap carefully laid by nearly a score of detectives.

Amedeo had been the object of an intensive police search since he fatally shot Detective Charles Annerino, 30, of the robbery detail in a North Side saloon Oct. 21.

The police had been ordered to "shoot to kill" Amedeo on sight.

Lt. Frank Pape, chief of the robbery detail and the force's ace machine gunner, laid the trap. Detectives William Murphy and John Bosquette, Annerino's partners, were among the detectives who helped spring it.

Dressed As Workers

The detectives, dressed as hunters, workmen and cab drivers, stationed themselves in buildings, cars and trucks at Berwyn and Clark Streets and waited for Amedeo to keep an appointment with a woman.

As Amedeo reached the corner, one of the policemen called: "Give up, Gus!"

Amedeo drew his gun and, starting to run, fired twice.

A fusillade of police bullets riddled him with possibly a dozen shots.

A bystander, Louis Molnar, 35, was hit by a stray bullet and suffered a minor chest wound. Traffic was halted in Clark Street by a crowd of more than 2,000 who jammed the intersection after word spread that the hunted killer had been slain.

Extend Chest Drive For Another Week

Salem's Community Chest campaign, still lacking $9,589 to meet its goal, was extended for one more week today by General Chairman George Emery.

"We hope to wind up the drive and go over the top before the week is out," Emery said. The goal is $45,810.

He instructed teams which still have not covered all of their assigned territories to complete their clean-up work the first part of next week.

Bomb Is Found In Bender's Car

Cap Explodes, Fails To Set Off Dynamite

CHAGRIN FALLS, Ohio (AP)—A dynamite tried to blow up Rep. George H. Bender's 1946 Cadillac early today while the Republican candidate for Ohio senator was asleep in his home.

Bender's wife, Edna, found a seven inch, half-pound stick of dynamite—broken in half but otherwise intact—on the rear floor of the car this morning.

Only the detonator cap, said police, had exploded, shattering the car with corrugated brown paper used for wrapping the bomb.

The Ohio congressman had driven into the driveway of his home on his 14-acre estate around 12:15 a. m. (EST) today, then had retired for the night in his bedroom on the opposite side of the house—40 feet away.

Probed Labor Rackets

About a month ago, Bender conducted a House subcommittee investigation here into purported Cleveland labor racketeering. Bender himself said at first he did not know whether the bombing was necessarily connected with this investigation.

But while the FBI and the sheriff's office in Cleveland sent investigators here, Bender's son-in-law, D. Joseph Bartlett, told reporters he saw a man "prowling around" the first day of the investigation.

He said police had been notified, and had been watching Bender's house.

Bartlett, reading clerk of the House of Representatives in Washington, also said he heard the Bender dogs—a setter and a collie—barking when Bartlett arrived about 12:30 a. m.

Bartlett and his wife, Barbara, live in one of the other two houses on Bender's estate.

"Stupid Act"
"It was a stupid act," Bender told reporters. "Somebody is trying to kill me."

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP)—The partially nude body of a pretty 16-year-old high school girl, missing from her nearby Hopewell Twp. home since Monday, was found today buried under leaves and dirt about 300 yards from her home.

Hopewell Twp. Police Chief Matt Zvonar identified the girl as Helen Jean Bryant and said "she definitely has been raped."

Zvonar said the girl was stabbed in the neck and in the chest. A wooden handled knife with a five-inch blade was found near the body.

Judge Permits Public Vote On Bonds, However

Opinion Sets Forth Illegal Procedure By City Council

Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp prolonged court three and one-half hours Friday night to hand down a decision permitting the people of Salem to vote Tuesday on a $450,000 bond issue for improving sewage facilities.

However, if the issue is approved, the vote will be invalid.

"I am not going to issue an order restraining this issue from being voted on, but will issue a temporary order restraining all defendants from any action in connection with the sale, issuance and/or payment of said bonds and from both the levy and collection of any tax to pay the same," Judge Sharp said.

The ruling concluded a two-day hearing on an injunction suit filed by the city against Council and the County Board of Elections to secure a restraining order discounting Tuesday's election because of alleged illegal paper procedure by Council.

Illegal Procedure
The city claimed that the resolution was not passed under correct Council procedure, was not certified to the Board of Elections within the legal time of 110 days prior to the election, and was not signed by Mayor Dean Cramer.

Judge Sharp said, "The first and most contested issue is whether or not the resolution of necessity was submitted to and passed by Council on July 20." He said evidence on this point is conflicting.

Judge Sharp said Council President James Aldom and the Democratic members of Council contend that a resolution of necessity was introduced by Councilman William Stark and was passed by the affirmative vote of Stark and other Democratic members of Council, Mrs. Mary Bryan, Louis Colian and Charles Edwards.

3rd Escapee Sees Family, Is Captured

A 28-year-old Calcutta father of four young children, who said he escaped five days ago from Mahoning County Jail with five other inmates because he wanted to "see his family," surrendered today at his home.

William W. Woods, who has been sentenced to 1-15 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary for burglary, was the third of six escapees from the jail to be captured since they sawed bars at the prison and slid down a fire hose Tuesday night.

Deputy Sheriff Al Hartman arrested Woods at 9:30 a.m. after a phone call from an unidentified person who stated that Woods was "ready to give himself up."

Woods said he had been "working his way" toward his home since his escape, sleeping in open fields and begging for food as he traveled.

Woods claimed he was not in the company of the other escaped jail mates after they freed themselves from their third floor cells.

Still at large are Jesse Floyd Kent, 24, of East Liverpool; Roy Moore, 31, of Wellsville, and Edward Wild, 55, of Cleveland.

Two other fugitives, Herman Donahue of Hammondville, and Sam Amecarelli of Youngstown were recaptured.

Donahue was trapped Friday morning in a Wellsville brick yard, and the Youngstown man was apprehended Wednesday while hitchhiking near Warren.

Confident Living

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

How To Stop What's Bothering You

I was staying in a hotel once bothered by the enemies of the human spirit. And once you begin to live on this spiritual basis one of the things certain to happen is that you gain deeper and sharper insights. Many people are haunted and made miserable all their lives by so many things they do not understand within themselves. It isn't necessary for you to go through life being hurt, annoyed, or bewildered, for the application of faith to your problems and to yourself helps you to understand and then find the answers.

Dr. Peale found him in bed, looking forlorn and unhappy. We talked for a while and finally he looked up at me and said, "How can I stop what's bothering me?" I did what I could to help him, and subsequently he found peace and with it a much better health condition. When we left, we went back to the manager's office. He sat down at his desk, swung his swivel chair around and looked out the window. "I guess that man's question is my question," he remarked, his back still to me. "I would like to know how to stop what's bothering me." And so, in that manager's office, we applied the same principles of understanding and then of spiritual renewal. Through the weeks that followed, this man also got new insights into what was bothering him and he was able to improve himself.

WHEN I GOT BACK to my room, I picked up the Gideon Bible, placed in many hotel rooms for travelers, and it chanced to fall open at the Twenty-third Psalm, where it says "Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies." I had a quick flash of the meaning of those familiar words.

Of course, this does not mean that a man sits down to a table piled high with food while his angry enemies watch him. I am sure it does mean, however, that if you live with God, he fills your life with such richness that fear, anxiety, domestic and financial trouble—all your enemies—have no power over you. It means, in short, that God can give you power over everything that bothers you. He anoints your head with oil, meaning that He fills your mind with peace. And so boundless is His mercy that your cup is more than full, it runneth over.

IF YOU CONTINUE in this attitude of faith, He will give you this mercy and goodness all the days of your life. It isn't necessary for you to go through life being hurt, annoyed, attacked,

Salvation Army Organizes Band For Youth Here

In conjunction with the program current in Salvation Army Citadel throughout northeastern Ohio, the Salem Corps recently organized a young people's band.

The group is under the instruction of Bandmaster Ernest Payton, the divisional bandmaster for this section. Two classes are held weekly on Friday.

The 26 youngsters who have registered an interest in the project are all active Junior Soldiers in the Army and Sunday School members of the local corps.

According to Capt. Shirley Brown, corps officer, the problem at present is securing instruments. With only 11 instruments available, the captain said that two or three youngsters are learning on one. Especially needed are alto and baritone horns.

The advisory board is backing the project as is the band committee comprised of Curtis Vaughan, chairman, Harold Smith and Herman Stratton. Board members and corps officers have asked the public's assistance in securing additional instruments in making the band a complete unit.

Bandmaster Payton is the son of Major and Mrs. E. V. Payton, corps officers of Bradford, Pa., and he has grown up in the army's band program, with special courses in the United States Army Band while he was in the service. He also has taken courses with Eric Leizden, famous for his interpretation of the Salvation Army Band program.

TOUCHDOWN FOR YOU?

Watch that Quarterback carry the ball! He's over for a touchdown... and victory!

But it was more than an outstanding run by a great quarterback. The coach had carefully worked out the play. It had been practiced over and over. There were signals, blocking, deception—all according to pattern.

In the game of life, you must carry the ball. You must strive toward the goal. But you must not run blindly and without help. To win, you must run according to pattern—this one the Master Pattern—of love and brotherhood.

Come to Church. Learn how to live from Him who is the Master Coach. Win the victory of peace and salvation.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly:

- (1) For his own sake.
- (2) For his children's sake.
- (3) For the sake of his community and nation.
- (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When You Vote Tuesday

You have an opportunity to join with other voters in the 18th District Tuesday in electing Walter Jay Hunston as congressman.

Hunston, Salem's city solicitor, is pledged to President Eisenhower's program and will give this district the attention it should receive.
His opponent, Wayne Hays of Belmont County, has been pulling out all of the stops in an attempt to win a fourth term; even trying to woo housewives' votes by sending them cookbooks—at government expense.

Hunston has campaigned diligently and honestly to win the election. We hope he does.

We also anticipate local voters return to office of Galen Greenisen, Salem's county commissioner candidate. Greenisen has worked hard during his first term as a commissioner
and has been a credit to the courthouse staff.
Attorney Donald Elliott of Rogers village, Republican candidate for state senator, and Clarence Wetzel of Lisbon, GOP state representative candidate, deserve support.

Among the special issues on the ballot Tuesday, the $140,000 Columbiana County jail bonds
need a 55 per cent affirmative vote if this county is going to be able to build the jail it needs.

Who Is Apathetic

If the soothsayers and pollsters are on the right beam this year, the vote will be light. The saws in the wind indicate that the political tempests are not blowing hard enough in 1954
to blast the electorate into violent action.

In 1952, it was different. The political winds were blowing at a tornado rate. Voters were aroused from their apathy by a war in Korea
that the United States couldn't win, by scandal
and corruption in Washington and by never-ending inflation that had been destroying the value of money.

If there is as much apathy this year as the guessers hint there is, it must be among the people who voted for a change in 1952. Having got what they wanted, they have gone back to sleep. If they stay asleep through Nov. 2, they will be in line for another rude awakening two years from now.

Many reasons have been offered for political apathy in the United States. But many reasons are needed, because there are many kinds of apathy. The kind in question in 1954, President Eisenhower believes, is the special variety caused by satisfaction.

People who voted in 1952 to clean up the mess
in Washington, to stop the war in Korea and to curb runaway inflation think the job has been done. Therefore, they are going back to sleep.
They are satisfied.

That is why the guessers and pollsters are biting that people who are dissatisfied because the end of the war boom has caused unemployment and lower income may be able to outvote satisfied citizens at the polls on Nov. 2. If it happens, it will be a victory by default.

If there is any possibility that it might happen to you, wake up and get ready to vote. The United States needs your interest, not your apathy.

Party Government

The strategy of the high command of the Democratic party throughout congressional campaigning this year has been to claim it would support President Eisenhower if it won a majority in the House and Senate.

The reason for the strategy is obvious.

President Eisenhower continues to be popular. He was more popular with voters in 1952
than the general run of Republican candidates who ran with him. He is more popular in 1954
than the general run of candidates running with him. The Democratic high command is clinging to his coattails.

But in the processes of party government
there is no place for open-handed party support.
Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, seeking as minority leader, said last week that a Democratic majority, if elected, would cooperate completely with President Eisenhower on foreign policy and defense. But on everything else, Sen. Johnson indicated there would be an issue, unless Eisenhower knuckled under completely to the Democratic high command.

Since Eisenhower was elected on his pledge to fight creeping socialism and galloping inflation, the two key policies of the dominant faction in the Democratic coalition, cooperation between him and the Democrats would be out of the question.

Furthermore, the sole aim of the Democratic high command would be to win the next presidential election, in 1956. Under no circumstances would it do anything to build up President Eisenhower as a second-term candidate.

The claim that the Democratic party and its representatives and senators would support the Eisenhower administration if they became a majority in the 84th Congress is made in bad faith. There is no place on the Eisenhower coattails for candidates whose first political duty would be to vote against the President if they were members of the congressional majority.

U.S. Prestige Involved

By DAVID LAWRENCE

GOP Defeat Would Hit Diplomatic Gain In Europe

If the pre-election forecasts are to be believed — and none, of course, has been made on the basis
of any scientific poll of the 435
districts in the House and the 35
states where there are elections
for the Senate — then American prestige abroad may drop considerably. That's what would happen if a divided government comes into being.

The spectacle of the American government doing something which
in Europe would be regarded as fantastic — putting Churchill in,
for example, to head the cabinet
while Atlee and the British Labor party controlled the Parliament—
would be bound to create throughout the world an unfavorable impression about the constitutional system of this country.

For many months Adlai Stevenson and a number of other Democrats have been saying that American prestige has dropped because the governments abroad didn't know whether they had better deal with a certain senator or with the Eisenhower - Dulles branch of the government.

But what will happen now if the Democratic party takes control of both houses of Congress? Will foreign governments feel they should send ambassadors or ministers or special envoys to negotiate with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the House Foreign Affairs Committee?

WILL DEMOCRATS, like Stevenson, who have been crying out that America doesn't have a single spokesman on foreign policy now say that it is all right to have two spokesmen — the Department of State and the congressional committees on foreign affairs? Is a drop in prestige for America all right if the Democrats bring it about, and is it okay for the Democratic party, on taking control of Congress, to run the foreign policy of the nation?

Europeans were shocked when the American people in November 1918 — before World War I had ended—elected an opposition Congress and then the Senate began to tie the hands of President Wilson, Democrat. Even before he went to Paris to negotiate a peace treaty,
nearly a majority in the Senate
signed a round-robin outlining kind of treaty they would accept or reject.

Promises of cooperation between the executive and the legislative branches will be regarded by Europeans now as adding to the confusion because in their eyes there can be only one majority party
next January, and that's the one in control of the national legislature.

The Europeans understand a coalition government when established at a time of national emergency, but this means two parties
actually share the executive responsibility. This is not possible under the American system.

What the Europeans will like about a Democratic victory in Congress, however, is the possibility that it will mean more money for them. Some feel that the Eisenhower administration pinches pennies too much.

The foreign governments know,
of course, that America's foreign policy is closely related to functions appropriated for aid of a military and economic character abroad
and that Congress holds the purse strings.

INFORMAL CONTACTS are sometimes made by foreign governments with members of Congress, especially with the chairmen of important committees. If the Democrats come into power, it will not be possible to know clearly
just what America's foreign policy is to be because appropriations proposed by the executive may be altered by the Congress and an era of contest and confusion is bound to arise.

The whole world will wonder,
too, about President Eisenhower's leadership. Will Congress back him up? the answer will not come for months. Meanwhile, the Soviet government will be watching for opportunities to throw monkey
wrenches into American diplomacy and, behind the scenes, may find ways and means of adding to the friction.

The foregoing set of possible consequences can be so damaging to the prestige of the United States that one wonders how sincere have been the professions of highly placed Democrats in their concern about the standing of America abroad. For if these protestations mean anything, then logically leading Democrats should be urging their fellow citizens not to reduce that prestige but to prevent a divided government by voting for the Republican candidates for Congress.

Some Europeans will feel, on the other hand, that maybe President Eisenhower should resign and either Truman or Stevenson be named to the presidency. They think that, if the electorate in a free country elects one party to control
of the parliament, that same party should have the right to select the chief executive, too.

IF A MAJORITY of the voters and the stay-at-homes mean by their attitude to repudiate and show a lack of confidence in President Eisenhower and his foreign policies, then they should be aware that this is what most persons abroad will construe the election of a Democratic Congress to mean.

Conversely, retention of the Republican Congress will be construed abroad as a vote of confidence in the Eisenhower foreign policy at a time of the greatest success the United States has achieved since the close of World War II.

It's up to the 49 million voters
who have registered to say what they do mean next Tuesday, and Europeans will then put their own interpretation on the result. Next week's dispatches from Europe
should indeed be interesting.

Resents Hays Campaign Tactics

To The News: Did you receive your 96-page, government printed cook book? You surely did because I got mine and also a copy of the "Biography of Hon. Wayne L. Hays as printed in the Congressional Record. I have been asking around and so far have found no one who hasn't had them delivered in nice, government
franked envelopes.

I wonder what prompted Mr.
Hays to be so thoughtful of us at this particular time. I also wonder how much it cost us taxpayers
for the special privilege this congressman enjoys in bombarding
us with this double mailing of propaganda just before election. Do you suppose he could be induced to tell his constituents just how many were mailed, how much it cost and why he thinks we will take kindly to financing his campaign?

The cook book is probably worth
the advertised price of 25 cents, but the biography is priceless. I hope all Democrats and Republicans alike will read it, especially the parts concerning unemployment, the farm problem, etc. Perhaps someone else can tell me his solutions - the biography did not go that far.

His biography refers to him as an educator. He qualifies as an educator by having taught school in Flushing, O. for four years. It recites that he quit teaching because he "couldn't have academic freedom. He is then quoted as follows: "The way I feel is that a teacher should teach the way he wants to; he shouldn't have over-eager parents or an over-eager board of education dictating
every lesson plan to him.

Someone ought to tell Hays that in America children's parents are vitaly interested in how their children are taught - and that they elect school boards to protect the interests of parents, children and teachers alike. What a field day the Communists would have if that interest ever lagged!

As one voter I resent Mr. Hays' implied suggestion of our ignorance and gullibility. I resent his use of the franking privilege to try to influence votes in his favor.
I resent paying taxes to help finance his campaign.

Fortunately we have an outstanding candidate, Walter Jay Hun-ston, available to vote for as our congressman. He will support the Administrations plans for economic recovery and world peace. He will especially work for peace because he knows first-hand what war is. He will not brag about it but he has a wonderful war record

which alone entitles him to earn consideration. And seldom has a young man moved into Salem and so quickly demonstrated his ability, and worth by his participation in public affairs, in his church, in veteran and other organizations
and civic activities generally.

Because the southern part of our district is so strongly Democratic, Jay Hunston needs every vote that can be mustered in Columbiana County.

Dog House For GOP?

By JAY G. HAYDEN

Secretary of defense Wilson's use of a comparison between
"bird dogs" and "kennel fed dogs"
in discussing human unemployment has given Democratic orators a rare field day.

But only the voters, after they have had time to digest Secretary Wilson's full remarks, will determine whether he is to take a seat alongside James G. Blaine in the lore of egregious political blunders.

Blaine, the Republican nominee
for president in 1884, accepted
without protest a statement by Rev. Samuel D. Burchard, spokesman for a delegation of Protestant clergymen, characterizing the Democratic party as representative of "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion." The alliteration was immediately used with great effect
by Democrats to win back Irish Catholic voters who were trending toward support of Blaine.

When Blaine was defeated by losing New York State, 563,048 to 562,901, the result generally was attributed to his Burchard faux pas.

Secretary Wilson's offending remark appears to have been only incidental to the main theme of a Detroit press conference, which was an explanation that alleged inequities in distribution of defense
contracts were due, first, to a cut-down caused by ending of the Korean War, and second, to acceptance of the lowest bids wherever they might fall.

AS TO RESULTANT unemployment Wilson, according to the published stenographic record, said:
"You see, actually it's smart to put work where there's plenty of workmen. But this defense business of the country is too serious
a business to look at as though it was 'made work' and just something to dish out to keep somebody busy. It's too serious a business for that. And it's got to be placed where people can get it done.

"I'd like to tell you a story that happened to me—an incident that happened to me down in Washington. A group of people came in like you're talking about, from a distressed area—so-called labor-surplus area—and they pointed out that it was so classied. And one of them made the complaint, this is a little over a year ago, in addition, he said: "You know you've just reduced the draft. In our district there are 110 more young men that won't have to go to the Korean fight now and that'll add to our unemployment." And the idea that a 19-year-old boy could be drafted and sent to Korea to be shot at and he didn't have enough gumption to go 100 miles

and get himself a job—I don't go for that.

"And I've got a lot of sympathy for people where a sudden change catches 'em. But I've also liked bird dogs better than kennel fed dogs myself. You know, one who'll get out and hunt for food rather than sit on his fanny and yell."

SEEMINGLY SUSPECTING that his thoughts might have led him
astray from his immediate purpose of helping Republicans get elected, Wilson concluded with a remarkable stroke of political perspicacity.

"I'm getting out of the press-conference area now, I think," he said.

The most revolutionary among Wilson's statements, in fact, was that the business of using military contracts as "made work"—that is,
placing them to fit community and partisan political needs—is a thing of the past.

For more than 20 years before
President Eisenhower took office,
"made work" became more and more the regular thing—first in the boondoggling of the 1930 depression
years and then during several years of war between 1941 and 1953.

There is scarcely any doubt
that, if the present administration

had continued the practice of allotting government contracts according to ill need rather than economy and efficiency—always with a weather eye toward election day—it could have improved
its vote-getting outlook.

BUT CONTINUATION of that system also would have made impossible either the 11 million dollar annual reduction in government
cost or the more than 7 billion dollar tax reduction.

Before he got around to his offending canine illustration, Wilson
had strongly denied any favoritism
to General Motors, which he formerly headed, but he backed down
not a single inch from the policy
he said he had laid down of buying arms always where they could be best produced at the cheapest price.

As shown in a statistical table
published by the New York Times
last Sunday, General Motors' pre-eminence as a defense contractor
by no means started with the present administration.

During World War II, the allotment of war-material contracts to the whole automobile industry comprised 17.1 per cent of all such contracts, divided as follows: General Motors 8.7, Ford 3.3, Chrysler
2.1, Nash-Kelvinator and Hudson
0.9, Studebaker 0.7, Packard 1.1, Kaiser-Willys 1.3.

From the beginning of the Korean War in June, 1950, through June, 1954, the automobile industry as a whole was down to 11.5
per cent of total defense contracts,
divided as follows: General Motors
6.4, Ford 1.5, Chrysler 1.7, Nash-Kelvinator and Hudson 0.4, Studebaker 0.4, Packard 0.3, Kaiser-Willys 0.8.

One At A Time

By TRUMAN TWILL

Like all thoughtful male persons,
I have been mulling over the Lib-erace situation.

A long time ago, there was a Francis X. Bushman. Women
swooned. They swooned about Wallace Reid, John Barrymore, Rudolph Valentino, John Gilbert, Ronald Colman, Clark Gable and Tyron Power. And now they are swooning about Liberace and his piano.

That is what a thoughtful male person broods about — the cause
of all the swooning.

When men "swoon," the cause is always evident. But when women start a cult of overwhelming admiration, the cause is so widely varied it turns into a mystery
when you try to track it down.

Liberace is, after all, only a piano player with a manner so in-gratingly pleasant it is on the verge of being cloying. Moreover, take him off his piano stool, without the candelabra and the build-up and he is just one of a million men with no particular distinction.

I can remember when the big swoon was Valentino. There was a theory that Rudy did it with half-closed eyelids, giving the impression he was giving the conquest a sultry size-up before launching into some red-hot Latin love-making. So all of us tried squinting
but it didn't pay off.

John Gilbert was a smoothie
type, in an era when smoothness was the style. You just knew John was the kind who would say and do the most original things in the most delightful manner, and the impression lasted until sound movies, when it turned out he had a speaking voice that did nothing for the impression he had made in the silent movies — nothing.
That was the end of John. He was nothing but a shadow.

Sinatra, of course, sang. Today
there are a dozen male canaries
exploiting his discovery that if a song is tenderized like a packing-house ham it will do something to the impressionable minds of soft-headed girls. But Sinatra never was one to be taken at face value.
He was the kind who had to sing
morning, noon and night. Let him get laryngitis and he was a dead
duck.

Colman, Power and Wally Reid
and Barrymore, on the other hand,
could get by with nothing but their faces. They didn't have to do a thing. The same was true of Clark Gable. Women went for him
on sight.

A lot of us lately have been copying the best of Liberace, to see what the fellow has that we never had. We have scoured our incisors and practiced that wide-open grin. We have hung around the candelabra. We have slurred
our words and practiced gushing.
Those of us who can tinkle a little on the baby grand tinker have been practicing our scales and boning up on the history of the composers.

But it doesn't seem to pay off.
There is only one Liberace. There is only one anyone, when it's a question of making women swoon.
And that is what a thoughtful male person broods about.

What is the psychology that causes women to pick out one symbolic male at a time and throw themselves at his feet while continuing to get along as well as they can under the circumstances
with men who bear no resemblance to the symbol?

And who will it be in the next
reincarnation of the great god Apollo in the land of the free and the home of the swooners. Rubin-off and his violin?

'I Love Cabinets'

Citadels were crashed this week when a Washington cabinet meeting became eligible for a TV rating along with Jack Benny, Dragnet, Young Dr. Malone, Jimmy Durante and "This Is Your Life." For the first time in history it was possible for the American home to clear away the dishes and attend an official meeting of a president's official family. Anything can happen from here in and the time may come when administration operations will have a regular place in TV program schedules, and with some such title as "What's OUR Line?" "Name That Foreign Policy," "We Bet Your Life."

Our reaction to the sudden announcement of a telecast cabinet meeting was one of confusion.
We had planned to tune in on Sherlock Holmes and Captain Video, neither of whom had just returned from Paris or Bonn. But we thought it went off very well. For one thing it showed it was possible to arrange one somewhat experimental TV show without using Eddie Fisher.
And it was nice to find President Eisenhower,
master of ceremonies of a big TV program,
setting a precedent by NOT calling on some orchestra leader to take a bow as the "greatest musician of all time."

We also think the Republicans may have won many votes by producing a TV show in which there were no plugs for a cure for the common cold and no remarks that made you feel ashamed of your old icebox. (The Democrats claim that a Republican cabinet in session represents the height in refrigeration.)

In our opinion "The Eisenhower Early Early Late Late Show" or "Inside a President's Cabinet" fell somewhere between "Hawkins Falls"
and "I Remember Mama" on one side and "Omnibus" and "Dragnet" on the other, allowing it plenty of room for a forced landing.

There are Democrats who allege the President, alive to TV popularity, is trying to merge
"I Love Lucy" with "I Like Ike," possibly tossing in something like "I Even Like His Cabinet."

TV fans as a whole were more or less bewildered. Many of them think Adenauer is a violinist, that EDC is a new detergent and that Saar is a soft drink. Ike made a fine m.c. going only once for a laugh and introducing the star, Foster Dulles, without any routine about "The most wonderful, genuinely talented, sensation-ally equipped TV personality to come along in years." Secretary Dulles crossed up the TV public immediately. They had come to think of him as heavy, aloof and somewhat stuffy, but he bowled 'em over with an easy, relaxed performance. He even gave with a big TV smile, although refraining from a wink. There was no
piano.

Somebody realized that feminine charm is a must on video, and so Oveta Culp Hobby got into a cusp which gave warmth to the program. The time will come in America when there will be at least two women cabinet members, thus allowing for a sister act including songs and dances.

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., got into the act, answering the feminine demand for manly beauty. (Our kid mistook him for Warren Hull.) Messrs. Wilson, Summerfield, Benson and the others played as if they thought they were still in the period of the old "silent pictures." But the ice has been busted and it won't be long before every administration will include in its cabinet somebody with the TV appeal of Godfrey, Linkletter, and whoever is m.c. of "Queen for a Day." We anticipate an era when Martha Raye may be secretary of agriculture with Denise Darrell a presidential choice for secretary of defense.

Funny line in "Jubilee of Light" was George Gobel's, "Let's all sing happy birthday, dear, electric light bulb, happy birthday to you."

Russia is reported seeking the tourist trade...
The way things happen to visitors, would you call it "THE COOKED TOUR?" ... There is no country where a tourist can get a policeman with every meal.

There is so much trouble over here the Athletics will go that perhaps it would be a good idea to let them play for Kansas City in April, May and June and Philadelphia in July, August and September.

Xi Gamma Beta Sorority Plans Dinner Party

Final arrangements for their Nov. 11 dinner meeting at Heck's restaurant were made by members of Xi Gamma Beta Chapter of Sigma Phi Sorority Thursday night at the Ruth Smucker House.

Mrs. Russell Hackett conducted the meeting attended by 14 members when they decided on the dinner party with the members meeting at the restaurant at 6:15. All the women were reminded of the toy benefit demonstration Nov. 18 when guests may be invited.

In response to the request of Mrs. Joel Sharp, president of the Salem Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Hackett named Mrs. Charles Trotter to head the nylon hose committee; Mrs. Robert Paxson to the federation ways and means committee; and Mrs. Clifford Ayers, as new federation delegate replacing Mrs. Paul Bloor who resigned.

For the program, Mrs. Bloor reviewed the play "The Three Sisters" by Anton Chekhov, the great Russian dramatist.

George Bernard Shaw's play, "Saint Joan" was discussed by Mrs. Ethel Buehler. She said that the play was "a masterpiece of intellectual acrobatics with more suspense and great depths of emotion."

The gift of the evening went to Mrs. Clifford Ayers. On the hostess committee serving lunch were Mrs. Fred Limestahl and Mrs. Wade McGhee.

Thespians Present Play At Jr. High Assembly

A play "Ghost for Rent" was presented by the Salem Thespians at the Junior High School assembly this week. Color guard was made up of 7D and 8D class officers, Woody Deitch, Carol Luce, Carol Carlos, Danny Krickbaum, Tim Burchfield and Marilyn Stratton. Announcer was Darla Barnes.

Ushers and assistants for the Parent-Teacher Association meeting Monday and for visiting day Wednesday were Margie Vaughn, Marcy Naragon, Carol Conley, Helen Stokovic, Dixie Alesi, Darla Barnes, Ginny Stirling, Bonnie Getz, Fred McNeal and Paul Schmid.

A total of 400 persons visited in grades 1-6 and Junior High School at the 4th St. building Wednesday.

Mrs. Pasco Hostess To Chardares Club

Chardares Club members were guests Wednesday night at the party arranged by Mrs. Richard Pasco in the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Tony Pasco of N. Ellsworth Ave.

Prizes in traveling bingo went to Mrs. Robert Halverstadt, Mrs. Donald Boughton, and Mrs. Samuel Berger, a guest. The members exchanged names for the Christmas party. A large pumpkin was used theme when the hostess served refreshments.

Mrs. Boughton will be hostess at the next party, Nov. 17, at her home on W. Wilson St.

In College Band

Marlene Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Schmidt of 714 Newgarden St., has been admitted to membership in the Capital University band at Columbus. Marlene has been assigned to the clarinet section.

Marlene is a graduate of Salem High School and is enrolled in the nursing curriculum at Capital.

West Side Club Plans Election Of Officers

When the West Side Community Club met Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Zimmerman of Damascus Road, Mrs. Herman Gray, Mrs. Lebert Barber and Mrs. Oscar Burrier were appointed to serve on the nominating committee to prepare a slate of officers to be elected at the next meeting, Nov. 18, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayhew of E. 3rd St.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. George Dressel were named to a committee to decide on a time and place for the Christmas party, and Mrs. Mayhew, Mrs. Warren Brown and Mrs. W. W. Luce are to plan the entertainment.

In contests conducted by the program chairman, Mrs. Alda Oertel, prizes were won by Mrs. Barber and Mrs. Edith Purviance.

Shirley Jackson's book, "Life Among The Savages," was reviewed by Mrs. Purviance.

Lunch was served by the hosts and their associate hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Burrier, and Mrs. Lena Wharton.

Lend-A-Hand Club Holds Get-Together

When Lend-A-Hand Club members met Thursday with Mrs. Carl Vignon of Washingtonville, the president, Mrs. John Sweet, appointed Mrs. Emmett Longbottom and Mrs. Leroy Yocus to serve on the program committee.

Those appointed to serve on the flower committee are Mrs. Lynn Ferguson, Mrs. Vignon and Mrs. Rollin Leach.

The group planned to prepare a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family. Contest prizes were won by Mrs. Yocus and Mrs. Hazen Hunter, who also won the hostess prize.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Vignon.

Mrs. Clark Bennett will be hostess at the Nov. 26 meeting.

Ladies Italian Club Makes Benefit Plans

A benefit for Nov. 13 was planned when the Ladies Italian Club met Thursday night in the clubrooms on Penn Ave.

Mrs. August Paine, who is chairman of the affair, will be assisted by Mrs. Val Ciotti, Mrs. Frank Ciotti, Mrs. Dom Parlow, Mrs. Tony Aiello, Mrs. Angelo Volpe, Mrs. Sam DiSanza, Mrs. Charles Vender, Mrs. Tullio Ciotti and Mrs. Joe Pastorelli.

Special prizes at the meeting were awarded to Mrs. Anthony Tempesta and Mrs. Parlow. Lunch was served by Mrs. Frank Ciotti and Mrs. Volpe.

Because of Thanksgiving falling on the regular meeting date, the next meeting will be held Nov. 18 instead.

Mrs. Greene Hostess To Club Associates

Mrs. Lee Bowman of Hanoverton and Mrs. Clyde Davis Jr. were guests at the Thursday night meeting of the Cardettes Club in the home of Mrs. Richard Greene of Vine Ave.

Card prizes were won by Mrs. Carl Thomas and Mrs. Davis, and the traveling prize went to Mrs. Ray Wright.

RALLY SET FOR TONIGHT

The youth rally of Wesleyan Methodist Churches in this area is scheduled for tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the local church on W. Pershing St., with Rev. Harold E. Schmul, pastor of the Rochester, Pa. church, preaching the sermon. Rev. and Mrs. Harry Gough are local pastors.

WCTU Honors Three As Life Members

Three past presidents of the Columbiana County Woman's Christian Temperance Union were made life patrons of the organization at the Long Run Presbyterian Church, Calcutta. Those honored were Rev. Lydia Brantingham of RD 2, Salem; Mrs. Marguerite Borton of Damascus and Mrs. L. M. Kyes of East Palestine.

Rev. Brantingham and Mrs. Borton are now directors of spiritual life and speech contests, respectively. Mrs. Kyes has also held other officers in the county, having served in an official capacity for 33 years.

Mrs. Donald Mayhew, county president, who officiated, gave highlights on the state WCTU convention held at Lima last week. The 1955 state convention is booked for Ashtabula.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Earl Ruble of RD 1 Hanoverton, director of flower mission and relief, and Mrs. Doris Thompson of Calcutta. Two other Calcutta women, Mrs. Mary Marshall and Mrs. Margaret Stubb, twin sisters, offered accordion and piano duets. Mrs. Donald Dusenberry of Winona directed group singing.

Mrs. Wilford Edgerton, member of the Lisbon union, gave an interesting account of her visit to the United Nations sessions in New York City. A review of the book, "Alcohol and Lawlessness" was given by Mrs. Marie Lowry of East Palestine, director of scientific temperance instruction.

Other officers and directors in attendance were Mrs. Herman C. Stratton and Miss Pearl Walker of Salem; Mrs. Lillie Lewton and Mrs. Mary Bell of Lisbon; Mrs. Lydia Miles and Mrs. Borton of Damascus; Miss Josephine Dunn and Mrs. Sina Megraff of Winona; Mrs. Lola Williams of East Palestine; Mrs. Adalinda FitzRandolph of Negley; Mrs. Elva Baxter of Rogers; and Mrs. Anna Lou Nole, Scheim and Mrs. Mae Tyson of Columbiana. Most all of them had some part in the institute.

The spring institute will be held in Damascus and the county convention next fall will be held in Wellsville.

Famous Trichologist Tells Truth About Saving And Improving Hair

The new method of home treatment for saving and growing thicker hair will be demonstrated in Salem, Ohio, Sunday only, Oct. 31, 1954. These private demonstrations will be held at the Lape Hotel, on Sunday only, Oct. 31, 2 p.m. to 9 p.m.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 26 — In an interview here today Dr. Russell Collins, internationally famous trichologist and director of the Collins Hair and Scalp Experts, Inc., said "There are 18 different scalp disorders that cause most men and women to lose hair. Using common sense, a person must realize that no one tonic or so-called cure-all could correct all the disorders," he explained.

Guaranteed "The Collins firm, recognizing that most people are skeptical of claims that hair can be grown on balding heads, offer a guarantee," Collins said.

Once a person avails himself of the Collins treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. To insure this, we offer this guarantee: "If you are not completely satisfied with your hair progress at the end of 30 days your money will be returned."

Hopeless Cases Discouraged First, the Collins experts are quick to tell hopeless cases that they cannot be helped. But the "hopeless" cases are few. Only if a man is completely, shiny bald is he in this lost category.

If there is fuzz, no matter how light, thin, or colorless, the Collins firm can perform wonders. Everyone is given a complete private examination to determine the condition of his scalp, and cause of his hair trouble.

Free Examinations This examination is very thorough and highly technical. It requires 20 to 30 minutes. There is no charge for this examination and no appointment is necessary. After the examination he is told the required length of treatment and how much it will cost.

After starting treatment, he makes regular reports to the Collins firm in Oklahoma City, and a trichologist will return to check his progress periodically.

To spread the opportunity of normal, healthy hair to the thousands who are desperately looking for help, the Collins firm is sending specialists to various cities throughout the United States to conduct examinations and start home treatment.

No 'Cure-All' "We have no cure-all for slick, shiny baldness," Collins emphasizes. "If there is fuzz, the root is still capable of creating hair and we can perform what seems to be a miracle."

There is one thing Collins wants to be certain every man and woman knows. If a recession appears at the temples or a spot begins to show up on the crown of the head, there is something wrong and it should be given immediate attention.

Hair For Lifetime "If clients follow our directions during treatment and after they finish the course, there is no reason why they will not have hair all the rest of their lives," Collins said. "Our firm is definitely behind this treatment, it all depends on the individual client's faithful observation of a few simple rules."

How's Your Hair If it worries you call Trichologist M. C. Stanley at the Lape Hotel in Salem, Ohio, on Sunday only, Oct. 31, 2 p.m. to 9 p.m.

You do not need an appointment, you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way.—Adv.

Leetonia Defeats Lisbon 14-0, Takes First In Tri-County

Bears Chalk Up 7th Win In Row

Blocked Punt Brings First Leetonia TD

Leetonia's battling Bears, seeking their first undefeated season since 1945, moved another step closer to that achievement last night as they clawed the Lisbon Blue Devils 14-0.

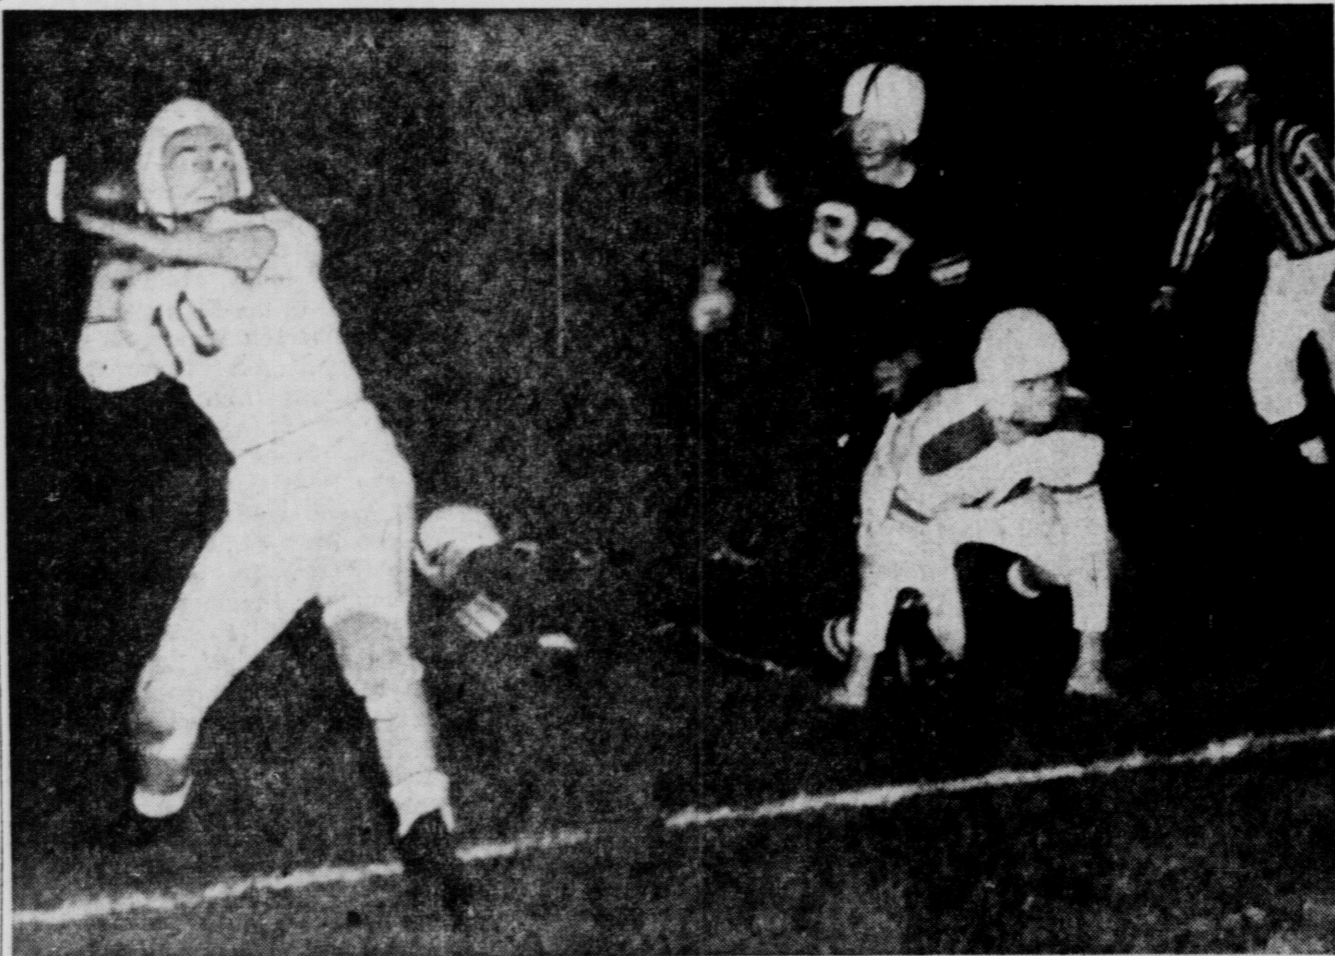

It was the seventh straight victory for Leetonia and the second loss of the season for Lisbon. The victory gives the Bears undisputed hold on first place in the Tri-County League, breaking a tie with Lisbon.

A packed house in Lisbon's stadium witnessed a cleanly-fought game in which no penalties were called until the fourth quarter.

Leetonia scored first in the second period, recovering a blocked punt and then tallied their second TD in the third stanza on a fine 22-yard run around right end by Gus Bell.

Leetonia received the opening kickoff and moved down the field with Jack Sanders and Ronald Stecker carrying the ball well. The drive was halted on the Lisbon 48 when Jerry Rose intercepted a Tony Less pass.

EARLY IN the second quarter, Leetonia drove to the Lisbon 43 where they were forced to punt. The punt landed on the 7 and Chester Leslie, attempting to run it back, was tossed back to his own 1-yard line. The Blue Devils gained 5 yards in three running plays and on fourth down with the ball on the 6-yard line, Jon Reynolds stood deep in his end zone to punt.

Leetonia's left end Robert Dimko crashed into the Lisbon backfield at the snap of the ball and blocked the punt which rolled wildly about the end zone with several players diving for it. Jim Knepper, a senior right tackle for the Bears, finally fell on it and registered 6 points for his team.

Tony Less's kick was good for the extra point.

Later in the quarter Leetonia, staying on the ground, moved to the midfield but lost the ball when Lisbon recovered a fumble on their own 49. The Blue Devils then opened a drive which rolled to the Bears' 25, but there they gave up the ball on downs.

In the third stanza, a Lisbon gamble paved the way to another TD.

THE BLUE DEVILS received the kickoff and moved to their own 46 where they attempted a running play on fourth down, only to fail to make the needed yardage. Leetonia then moved 46 yards to the score with a 14-yard pass from quarterback Less to right end Albert Kornbau carrying to the 22. From there, Bell broke loose and combined fine blocking with speed to race around his own right end 22 yards to the touchdown.

About 3 minutes of the period was gone at the time of the score. Less's kick for the extra point was again good.

Later in the period, Leetonia started a drive on their own 45 and driving on the ground, advanced to the Lisbon 11. They picked up on 1 more yard and then Stecker went 10 yards around left end into the end zone after a beautiful fake and tossout by quarterback Less, but the play was called back due to a clipping penalty which was called against Leetonia at the 5 yard line.

This penalty, early in the fourth quarter, was the first called of the game.

Dean Rose was the Lisbon player clipped and the outstanding back may be lost to the Blue Devils for a week as he received a sprained ankle and was carried from the field on a stretcher.

Leetonia was set back to the 20 on the play, but quickly moved downfield, getting back to the 5 where they lost the ball on downs. Lisbon then opened a passing attack which moved them to the Leetonia 41 where they lost the ball. The Bears took over the ball and the game ended shortly.

FOR THE BEARS, David Gwynne, senior center, was outstanding for defensively as were Stecker, Sanders Less and William Dattilio for the offense. Less' clever faking and handling of the ball showed him to be one of the outstanding quarterbacks of the district and Dattilio recorded several fine gains on end sweeps.

Chick Ashton played his usual bruising game at linebacker for the Blue Devils, making numerous tackles. Roger Taffin stood out for Lisbon defensively on the line.

Leetonia recorded 10 first downs to 6 for the Blue Devils.

The Bears play Sebring next week in their final Tri-County tilt. Last night's contest ended the Lisbon Tri-County competition this season and the Blue Devils must now hope for Sebring to upset Leetonia to gain them, a tie for first place with the Bears in the league.

Lisbon was upset opening game by Akron Coventry but was undefeated after that in Tri-County games.

Leetonia's last completely perfect season was in 1924. In 1945 the Bears were undefeated but were tied 0-0 by Columbiana. Chuck Mather coached the Bears that year.

In 1942, Leetonia was also undefeated but again had a 0-0 tie with Salem.

Lisbon plays Columbiana at Lisbon next week.

Bucks Favored 14 Points Over Wildcats Today

EVANSTON, Ill. (P)—Northwestern's hapless Wildcats, a team which hasn't won a Big Ten game since 1952, faces undefeated, untied Ohio State today at Dyche Stadium.

Not only are the Wildcats confronted with the task of trying to stop the nation's No. 1 team, but they must also try to corral Hopalong Cassidy, the AP's Back of the Week.

Ohio State vaulted into the nation's top spot with a surprising 31-14 victory over Wisconsin.

Ohio State is tabbed only a 14-point favorite. That's not without reason. Northwestern outplayed Southern Cal and Michigan and lost to Pitt in the final 40 seconds.

LEETONIA-LISBON ACTION—Rugged blocking was a feature of the Leetonia-Lisbon football game last night at Lisbon as the Bears defeated the Blue Devils 14-0. At top, Lisbon quarterback Chester Leslie (10) starts to throw a long pass downfield in the fourth quarter as Lisbon battles to overcome a Leetonia lead. Seeking to reach Leslie before the pass is thrown is the Bears' tackle Vincent Sevensch (87). Leslie had run to the sideline before throwing. The pass went incomplete.

In the second photo, Gus Bell, left halfback for Leetonia, sprints toward the end zone picking up blocking as he scores the Bears' second touchdown in the third quarter. Ready to throw block for him is James Knepper (95) on Lisbon's Jon Reynolds (27).

The third picture catches Bill Dattilio, the Bears' right halfback, as he takes off on one of his runs around left end. This play in the third quarter picked up 13 yards.

City Cage Schedule To Be Set Up Soon

Basketball teams which intend to play in either of the city's three leagues this winter are urged to contact Ward Zeller, Memorial Building manager, so preliminary work can be done on schedules.

As last year, Girls, Class A and Class B teams will be organized, with the possibility that an Industrial League also will be formed.

Zeller said. Approximately 25 teams participated in city basketball in 1953-54, and at least that amount is expected to vie in the forthcoming season's games.

Zeller said the first official meeting to set up league schedules and make other plans for the season will be held in approximately two weeks.

NEW YORK — Vince Martinez, 148½, Paterson, N. J. stopped Carmine Fiore, 147, Brooklyn, 7.

Miami Trounces Fordham 75-7, Marquette, Citadel Win Tilts

By The Associated Press
This Miami football team of Coach Andy Gustafson is all fired up with no place to go.

The NCAA's recent disciplinary order against the Florida school, banning post-season competition, puts a pretty sturdy roadblock between Miami and a bowl bid. And the way the Hurricanes are going, it looks like that order may be the only device capable of stopping Miami this season.

Miami, a newcomer at the No. 10 spot in this week's Associated Press poll after defeating Maryland, exploded in all directions for its sixth victory of the season last night, humiliating Fordham's Rams 75-7.

It was the highest score ever run up by a Miami team and more than made up for a 20-upset the Rams perpetrated against the Hurricanes last season in New York's Polo Grounds.

The score was 41-0 at the half as the Hurricanes got off to a good start on a 11-touchdown rampage. Nine different ball carriers did the scoring with Gordon Malloy, Miami's All-America candidate, and Sam Scarnecchia each scoring twice. In all, Miami rolled to 373 yards rushing and added 98 yards on three of five pass attempts.

The Hurricanes weren't completely wrapped up in offense, however. Miami's defense rocked the Rams for a minus 2 yards rushing.

In other Friday action that got another big college weekend underway, Marquette defeated Detroit 14-13, th Citadel upset Wofford's six-game winning streak 14-13. Richmond knocked off George Washington 7-0 and Denver defeated New Mexico 19-6.

With Miami already safely home, it's up to Ohio State, Oklahoma, UCLA and the rest of the top 10 to do as well today. Ohio's Buckeyes, the No. 1 team, look to have an easy opponent in Northwestern. An OSU victory coupled with a Michigan success against Indiana would bring the two Big Ten leaders another step closer to a title-Rose Bowl meeting Nov. 20.

Oklahoma, with quarterback Jim Harris and end Carl Allison, weakened by the flu, has a job on its hands with Colorado, a fellow Big Seven member that was looking to the No. 2 Sooners too soon last week and lost to Nebraska.

Mack Blasts League Vote On Athletics

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Connie Mack blasted the American League for rejecting the bid of eight Philadelphians to buy control of his beloved Athletics and said he believed the team will play in Kansas City in 1955.

The 91-year-old president of the Athletics said last night that "the Kansas City setup wants the club. Everything works to that end. No matter what the Macks say or do, the answer will still be Kansas City, of course."

Mr. Baseball, as he is known to fans the world over, said American League club owners just didn't want the Philadelphia syndicate to have the team. "They simply didn't want those men to have the club. It's a runaround with an awful lot of pressure to take the A's to Kansas City."

"They wouldn't get away with that stuff on me. They'd have to show me," said baseball's elder statesman. He said if he were a member of the syndicate he would "demand" to know the objection to the group.

MELBOURNE, Australia—Bobby Sinn, 117½, Melbourne, outpointed Billy Peacock, 117½, Philadelphia, 12.

Canton M'Kinley Upsets Alliance Aviators 26-6

CANTON, Ohio (P)—Canton McKinley's Bulldogs, booming back towards the top of the heap, knocked off the first place Alliance Aviators last night and scrambled the Ohio high school football rankings.

After McKinley's 26-6 victory, there was not a single unbeaten team among the first five clubs in this week's Associated Press poll. All five were left with 6-1 records.

McKinley, ranked third before the game, got off to an early lead on the running and passing of John Goodrich and turned the game into a rout by converting an intercepted pass and a recovered fumble into two fourth period scores.

Goodrich, a five-foot-eight left half, plunged four yards for a first period touchdown and swung around end in the third quarter for two yards and the clincher. The married senior ran 27 yards and passed for 29 more during Canton's opening 77-yard drive. In the second scoring push, a 47-yard affair, he contributed 15 running and 14 passing.

McKinley, whose games with Massillon used to decide the state championship, ran into rougher going more recently. This is its first really big team in four seasons.

Massillon's Tigers, ranked second this week stayed in contention by coming from behind to beat Warren Harding, 12-7, but had to stop a late 90-yard Warren push on the six. Dick Crescenze passed to Jerry Yoder for 28 yards and the first Tiger touchdown and Yoder galloped 19 for the other.

Fourth place Mansfield beat ninth spot Sandusky, 19-7, coming from behind for two touchdowns in the last quarter. Willie Mack intercepted a pass and ran 28 yards for the first Mansfield tally and then ran 23 yards for the last. A five-yard plunge by Wilmer Fowler scored the other one.

Springfield, the other team in the top five, downed Dayton's Wilbur Wright without too much trouble, 20-6.

In the second set of five teams on the rankings, Cincinnati Elder (6th) plays Cincinnati St. Xavier Sunday; Jackson (7th) walloped Nelsonville, 33-0, Thursday; Youngstown Rayen (8th) got by Salem, 13-6, Thursday; and Wellston (10th) thrashed Pomeroy, 34-0, last night.

Vince Martinez Knocks Out Fiore

NEW YORK (P)—Unless Vince Martinez' future runs into a family manager roadblock, the handsome Paterson, N. J., welter should be fighting for the title within a year.

Martinez' managerial situation is all messed up at the moment. Billy Daly holds the contract with Tex Pette as a partner. The boxer's father, Tony, and brother, Phil, are warring with Daly. Neither Daly nor Pette were in the corner last night as young Vince stopped Carmine Fiore on a technical knockout in 2:32 of the seventh round.

Ironically, Al Braverman, president of a rival managers' guild that is battling with Daly's group, acted as a Martinez second.

"Martinez is better off without Daly," said Papa Martinez. "His contract runs out March 9. After that we'll see about someone. He rushed the kid too much."

Martinez gave a brilliant exhibition of boxing skill against Fiore, a perfect foil who always came forward with nothing more than the threat of a left hook.

Questions, Answers

Q — Why is the Colonial trial of Judith Catchpole remembered in American history?

A — The jury hearing the case of Judith Catchpole, who was charged with infanticide, was composed entirely of women. It was the first all-woman jury in the New World.

Q — What date divides ancient history from medieval history?

A — Historians generally accept the year 476.

Signs Of Democratic Swing Appear In Western States

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another in a series of summing-up stories by roving Associated Press reporters who are analyzing the campaign in various sections of the country.)

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The big political question in Washington, Oregon, California and Nevada today is whether an apparent Democratic upsurge will win for the party significant gains at the polls next Tuesday.

Only the voters can decide this point, of course, but Republicans do not deny the Democrats are showing potential strength in this off-year election. There are too many signs of a Democratic swing in the far western country which went solidly for resident Eisenhower in 1952.

As an indication, Democratic registration in California increased by 154,827 and the Republican by 66,837 since the June primary. Democrats lead nearly 3 to 2 in the total sign-up—3,266,831 to 2,415,249.

How deep does the seeming Democratic trend go? Does it carry enough momentum to crack through Eisenhower's admitted personal popularity?

Election of 3 U.S. senators and 42 representatives, as well as state officers in three of the states, hinges closely on the answer. Washington, with no race for the Senate or governor, will choose 7 representatives, California, 30; Oregon, 4; and Nevada, 1.

The GOP, making a stand on the Eisenhower line, hopes to retain the three Republican senators, one of them now a temporary appointee, and maybe better its 30-12 share of the House members from the four states.

Republicans declare they expect to throw back serious challenges against Sen. Guy Cordon (R-Ore.) and Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.), who succeeded Vice President Nixon in the Senate.

In Nevada, though, prospects appear to favor former state Atty. Gen. Alan Bible to defeat Republican Sen. Ernest S. Brown, named by the Republican governor to serve until next January. The two Reno lawyers plunged into an abbreviated campaign after the state supreme court ruled there must be an election for the two-year unexpired term of Democratic Sen. Pat McCarran, who died Sept. 28.

The critical test will come in California. Most election experts are picking Kuchel to win over Rep. Samuel W. Yorty of Los Angeles and Republican Gov. Goodwin J. Knight to take Richard P. Graves in the slambang battle for the governorship. Independent polls indicate, however, that both Democratic candidates are moving up steadily.

There is sharp contention as well in California's 30 congressional districts, now represented by 19 Republicans and 11 Democrats. Mrs. Elizabeth Snyder of Los Angeles, state Democratic chairman, predicts her party will gain five House members. Nixon has said he looks for the GOP to increase its delegation by one.

What's behind the Democratic threat? The record of both the Eisenhower administration and of the 83rd Congress runs through the campaigns like a meandering western river—a theme of broad importance in some areas, of thinning significance elsewhere.

The course of debate shoots off into bread-and-butter issues affecting the West's pocketbook. Public vs. private power in the Pacific Northwest. Farm prices and jobs in California. Tariff protection for mining in Nevada.

Democratic candidates are hitting away at what they term a power "giveaway" program, falling farm subsidies and continued high prices for consumer goods. They contend the people are disenchanted with the GOP record and show more than the normal off-year reaction against the party in power.

The GOP message, as exemplified by Secretary of the Interior McKay's political tour, is that the power partnership plan will help build new hydroelectric works; that the agricultural market is stable; that administration policies are good for the West.

Other points of conflict, confined to state matters, are far from being overlooked. In California, for instance, proposed state liquor control and demands to "do something" about the smog plaguing Los Angeles are major issues. A gambling expose has created a political furor in Nevada.

Here's a quick rundown on the political scene in the four states: Washington—With no races for governor or the Senate, interest centers on the seven House posts—six held by Republicans.

General opinion questions whether Republican Al Canwell of Spokane can overcome the sizable vote-getting power displayed by Democratic Rep.-at-Large Don Magnuson of Seattle in the primaries. Magnuson polled twice as many votes in his party contest as did Canwell in his, and more than all four GOP candidates.

In the 1st District, including Seattle, the battle between Republican Rep. Thomas M. Pelly and former Democratic Rep. Hugh B. Mitchell is rated very close. Republicans ran comfortably ahead in vote totals in the five other congressional primaries.

Oregon—The Republican registration and tradition side with Sen. Cordon, whose campaign has picked up after a sluggish start. Richard L. Neuberger, a Portland state senator and professional writer, is considered the strongest Democratic candidate in 40 years.

Mrs. Edith Green of Portland, opposing radio commentator Tom McCall in the 3rd District, and Albert C. Ullman of Baker, running against Rep. Sam Coon in eastern Oregon's 2nd District, are given an outside chance among the four Democratic candidates for Congress. Republican Reps. Walter Norblad, 1st District, and Harris Ellsworth, 4th, appear to be assured of reelection.

Republican Paul L. Patterson, who succeeded Secretary McKay as governor, is believed to be out in front of Democrat Joseph K. Carson Jr., former Portland mayor, in an unexciting gubernatorial campaign.

California—Republicans, accustomed to winning both nominations in the run-on-both-tickets primary, got a jolt when all the Democratic candidates for statewide office and Congress captured their own nominations for the first time in the state's history. This resulted chiefly from a ballot innovation of listing the candidates' parties—and the impact of the heavier Democratic registration.

Republicans are comforted only by the fact that they outdare their opponents on the two-party vote. Kuchel received 55.18 per cent of the combined tally for the Senate, as against 32.63 for Yorty. Knight's two-party lead over Graves was 943,826, not far from Graves' 973,735 total on both Democratic and Republican tickets.

Even so, Republicans are worried, especially those lesser state officials who have never had to campaign before. The huge Democratic registration is disturbing to them; so is the gain in Democratic voters since the primary. And this is the first general election since 1938 that former Gov. Earl Warren's name is not on the ballot to help attract Democratic support.

James Roosevelt, by all indications, will succeed Yorty as Democratic representative from the 26th District of Los Angeles. Nor will it be a great surprise if Democratic Rep. Robert L. Condon of Walnut Creek weathers "security risk" charges, which he denied, and is returned from the Democratic 6th District.

Nevada—Bible packs an advantage as the Democratic candidate for the Senate for these reasons: A protégé of the late Sen. McCarran, he has the support of the McCarran organization; he is better known than the GOP's Sen. Brown; and Nevada's registration is 3 to 2 Democratic.

The gubernatorial campaign is beclouded by a state probe into alleged gambling irregularities reaching into the office of Democratic Lt. Gov. Cliff Jones. Jones is not a candidate, but other Democrats fear the investigation will backfire on former Gov. Vail Pittman, 71, in his race against Republican Gov. Charles Russell.

Nevada's lone representative, Republican Clifton Young, is campaigning as an Eisenhower supporter, while his Democratic opponent, Rep. Walter Baring, is critical of some of the administration policies, especially on mining.

Leetonia

C. of C. Plans Lighting For Holiday Season

LEETONIA — Reports of the industrial development committee and preparations for the coming holiday season headlined the recent Chamber of Commerce meeting.

President Edward Greenamy, who is also chairman of the industrial group, reported on the results of recent campaign for new plants.

Henry Nemenz, chairman of the Christmas lighting committee, reported progress in renovating the old equipment, and plans for financing. It was decided to assess each merchant and business house on a foot frontage basis.

The matter of inadequate street lighting in the downtown district, with old style fixtures and low watt bulbs, was discussed. The secretary was instructed to write to Village Council, asking that a survey be made of the downtown lights, and try to find some means of brightening up the town.

A movie produced by the United States Chamber of Commerce showing the benefits and advantages of the American way of life closed the meeting.

THE I. F. MELLINGER Men's Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will hold its annual ladies night banquet at the church Monday at 6:30 p.m.

Members of the Servicemen's Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will hold a breakfast in the church basement Sunday at 8 a.m. The get-together will be held in honor of Mr. Frank Aultz, teacher in the Leetonia schools and assistant Sunday school teacher, who is leaving Leetonia. Mr. Aultz, has accepted a position in the Cleveland school system.

Leetonia Exempted Village Schools were closed Friday when teachers attended the Northeastern Ohio education meeting in Cleveland.

The annual parents night will be observed Friday evening, Nov. 5, during the Sebring-Leetonia football game. Parents of members of the football squad will be recognized by the mother of the football players being presented with a rose and the father with numerals identical to those worn by his son on the squad. Parents of the band members will receive recognition in an appropriate manner.

PARENTS of members of both the football squad and the band will receive passes to the game which will be given out previous to game time. Bill Bibson will represent the students during this activity and will be master of ceremonies.

The sale of mums was a success. This was a project sponsored by the Band Mothers Club.

Tag Day has been scheduled for Nov. 5 and 6. It will start with the conclusion of halftime festivities with Sebring. The goal for this years tag day is $400 to purchase a bass clarinet. Last year $370 was collected. Plans include parades in Leetonia and Washingtonville on Saturday, Nov. 6.

A THIRD AND FIFTH grade combination room has been organized in the South Side building. This additional room has relieved the overcrowding in grades three, five and six. Enrollments in various rooms in the above mentioned grades are now not over 35 children in each room.

Mrs. Raymond Knight is teaching in the combination room in the morning and Mrs. Mildred Painter during the afternoon.

The Tri-Hi-Y of Leetonia High School held its first meeting of the year Tuesday at the school. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Lois Young, the new sponsor of the group. The club elected the following officers: President, Beverly Gluckner; vice president, Skippy Rouse; secretary, Roseella Altomare; treasurer, Barbara Senior; reporter, Clorinda Mancuso. Plans were made for the initiation of new members to be held Monday.

At a recent meeting of the Hi-Y, the following officers were elected: President, Jim Knepper; vice president, Gail Holloway; secretary, John Mandish; treasurer, Donald Smith.

KOCEVAR APPEALS RELEASE

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John L. Kocevar of Cleveland, released by the state liquor department, is going to court in an effort to get back his job as an enforcement supervisor. He appealed to common pleas court here yesterday from a decision of the Ohio Civil Service Commission upholding the release. Kocevar was released July 27 when his 10-day absence without leave was considered an automatic resignation. Kocevar was a principal figure in the recent Franklin County Grand Jury probe of alleged shakedowns of liquor permit holders.

JAILED FOR CAR THEFT

CINCINNATI (AP) — Two Fort Knox Ky., soldiers received three-year sentences yesterday in U.S. District Court for stealing a car. Sgt. Albert L. Holt, 29, of nearby Wyoming, Ohio, and Donald E. Lambert, 18, of Warren, Ohio, pleaded guilty to the charge. The men, absent without leave, were arrested in Wyoming after breaking into a cleaning shop.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Some 3,500 teachers of the Eastern Ohio Teachers Assn. yesterday closed their 83rd annual meeting as they elected Roy E. Gillespie of Zanesville president. Other elections included Carl W. Martin, Toronto, vice president, and B. E. Gardner, Dillonvale, member of the executive committee. The 1955 meeting will be at Marietta Oct. 21.

EX-LEGISLATOR DIES

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — William H. Williams, 87, former state legislator and Democratic leader, died here yesterday after a two-week illness. A retired printing shop operator, Williams served in the Ohio General Assembly from 1936 to 1940.

6 HELD IN BURGLARIES

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police in suburban Parma today held six youths who they said admitted taking part in at least 20 burglaries in Cleveland and Parma. Five were captured yesterday after a chase by six zone cars. The other youth was arrested Thursday night when his parents became suspicious after finding champagne, wine and cigars stored in their garage. All are 16 and 17 years old.
